

MEET OUR TRAINER

IPT- Specialization Course on Intersectional Gender Work and Peacebuilding: Dr Gal Harmat

Dr. Gal Harmat holds a PhD in Gender Analysis of Peace Education and Dialogue encounters from Nitra University (Slovakia) and a M.A. in Gender and Peacebuilding from the UN-Mandated University for Peace in Costa Rica. She was a resident professor at the Gender and Peace Building Programme, and the head of the Dept. of Peace and Conflict Studies at UPEACE. Dr. Harmat is teaching in the UN University for Peace, and Kibbutzim College of Education in Israel.

As a Gender and Peace Education Specialist, she has extensive experience in training, conflict analysis, dialogue facilitation, capacity building, peace education, research, intersectionality, and gender mainstreaming since 1998 in various countries in Eastern Europe, Africa, and the Middle East. Her consultancies include intergovernmental organizations.

In the last few years, she researches intersectional gender in public spaces, emancipating educational practices and facilitating experiential learning 'sexual harassment prevention' and diversity workshops for organizations and companies and running the Facebook page hamemagderet that link between intersectional pedagogy, culture, and education. Harmat is the 2018 Georg Arhold Fellow, Visiting Research Professor at Georg Eckert Institute for International Textbook Research in Braunschweig.